

Lucas Hernán Gordon Dio
(Spanish Instructor)

Lucas H. Gordon Dio is from the romantic city of Buenos Aires, Argentina. In 1989, he saw the film "Dead Poets Society" and from that moment decided that he wanted to teach others and inspire new generations to bring out the best in themselves. In 2008 he began teaching and tutoring. He has worked with several schools and has taught more than 1,000 students over the years.

In 1999, he left Argentina with a desire to travel the world and learn more about other cultures. He spent several years in Paraguay before making his move north to Mexico and the United States.

He has an extensive background working in media. With a degree in communications, he has written for more than 50 media outlets across the world and has hosted and produced dozens of radio and television shows.

Today, Mr. Gordon Dio, regularly practices in different educational facilities, while still working as a social communicator and humanitarian, collaborating with St. Jude Children's Hospital, PETA, Mascoteros Metaleros, 600 Million Stray Dogs and Cats Need You, and other outreach organizations.

Lucas has been working for OLA since 2017 as a Spanish teacher, afterschool enrichment instructor and as a camp counselor. Lucas' classes are dynamic and entertaining and he loves incorporating fun activities as a way of enhancing students' learning process.
